Padagyaw an ethnically Dumaraonon word connotes voluntarism in helping in community undertaking. Padagyaw further connotes an invitation to help in whatever way a community member can afford.

And a dynamic term to call community members to move together as a single potent not only towards a colorful fiesta celebration, but also towards the attainment of quality of life founded on spiritual, moral and civic values alongside with the enhancement of civic consciousness and total involvement for economic, social and cultural wellbeing. (Municipal Resolution No.74, Series of 1990).

The Padagyaw Festival is one of the best known and established festivals in the province of Capiz through the years. It has played a big part in the lives of most Dumaraonons. The festivity changed over the years, though its cultural presentation remained popular up to this day, and has resurrected and form part in celebration that reflected function and transition. It also represented a major change in style and subject matter.

Tourism, through this cultural celebration it brings local and international visitors interested to know the town's history, considerable scenic beauty, and a number tourism attraction. The Padagyaw Directorate and the Local Government Unit of Dumarao devotes their efforts of promoting local and national scene. These efforts focus on the cultural festivity-at least in the early promotional stage, in the best way to keep it alive, and a variety of innovative efforts are underway to do just that.

The Padagyaw Festival is a week-long celebration including Inter-Sectoral Street dancing, Pista ng Bayan; it's opening day, Inter-Volleyball Competition, ABC and PNP Night, Dumarao's Got Talent, Moulders Night, Coronation of Miss Padagyaw; and the much awaited Playground Demonstration. (Padagyaw Souvenir Program, 2007).

Municipality of Dumarao played an important role in reaching its peak of progress. The Municipality of Dumarao is situated in the Southern portion of Capiz, 52 kilometers South of the provincial capital, Roxas City. Its absolute Geographic position at 11°8'0"-11°20'0" North latitude and 122°40'0"-122°52' 0" East longitude. It shares political Boundaries with Cuartero and Maayaon, Capiz in the North, San Rafael, Iloilo in the Southeast, City of Passi, Iloilo in the South and Dumalag, Capiz in the West. (Padagyaw Souvenir Program, 2007).

This research study was conducted in order to find out the history, socio-cultural and economic contribution of Padagyaw Festival to the Dumaraonon's way of life. Specifically, it sought answers to the following questions:

What is the history of Padagyaw festival?

What are the socio-cultural contributions of Padagyaw Festival to Dumaraonons way of life?

What are the economic contributions of Padagyaw Festival to the Dumaraonon?

(11) Materials and Methods or Methodology

Origin of Padagyaw Festival

Early Historical Account

The Padagyaw is the name given to the unique identification of the celebration of Dumarao town Fiesta. In the beginning the Dumarao Fiesta was generally a religious celebration, during that time, the celebration has not established its name, it was through the Fiesta directorate which the name “Padagyaw” was conceived, the word “Padagyaw” is voted in favor of other names such as Patang-Kuris, Bayanihan and Panurong-surong.

Padagyaw came out for festivities identification of every Municipality. The name Padagyaw was formulated from the Dumaraonon’s attitude and from the values of the elders during those times where people come together to help, relatives and friend, render services such as constructing a house, planting rice and others without expecting any payments in return, though it is also called Bayanihan.

When Padagyaw was passed as an ordinance in 1990, mass demonstration and dance calisthenics were no longer perform, it was through the adaptation of Padagyaw that traditional and cultural dances were revived. Playground demonstrations whether livelihood or cultural traditions was anchored to the Padagyaw theme.

Moreover, discussant A, shared the history behind the name “Padagyaw”. He said that The Padagyaw is one factor that made the fiesta directorate members spoke for that term Padagyaw. Second is Dagyaw or Tabang. Historically, when Spaniards came in Danguila in Tinaytayan, they crossed the river in going to the town proper. How they had crossed the river is through the help of people who made a makeshift bridge called “Lantay” which the word “Tinaytayan” came from, the very reason that Spaniards had crossed from one side of the river to the Tinaytayan itself.

Second is the Church of Dumarao, that church according to discussant A was made of limestone came from the mountains carried by the so called Pintakase. Thus term Padagyaw is favored upon during the voting instead of Patabang.

In 1990 until 2000, the Padagyaw Festival was celebrated through a simple celebration. Playground demonstration was one of the activity participated by the various school in the district. The procession is one of the highlights in the celebration of the festival. Procession is the re-enactment of centinela and the miracle of Nuestra Senora Delas Nieves.

It was in 2013 that the directorate decided that the playground demonstration will be changed into a culture based performance which in lined with the yearly theme. The directorate approved the culture based performance after the town won 3rd runner up in the Iloilo Kasadyahan Cultural Competition 2013 representing the Province of Capiz.

Socio-cultural contribution of Padagyaw Festival

Social Contribution

One significant contribution of the Padagyaw is that it boost the tourism industry and intensify the economic activity of the Local Government Unit, likewise the event offers economic opportunity to the business sectors which greatly contribute to tax collection of the LGU, an added income activity of the municipality.

Discussant F claimed that Padagyaw is very significant for them it means income, which made them feel very happy. It was decided that the celebration be fused into one act of thanksgiving for all good harvest and blessing, regardless of affiliation, may it be political and religious.

People are attracted to the parade, to the food and to the native products being exhibited by the Dumaraonon. They said, it gives them happiness as tourist and visitors would come and join in the celebration.

Since the school could not force students in learning the history of Dumarao, they also believed that through the celebration of Padagyaw students will learn the history of Dumarao, it is from this celebration that actual dance and presentation is being shown, for students it could be the bases for learning the customs, and cultures of the Dumaraonon.

Discussant F also agreed with the idea that Padagyaw is celebrated to commemorate the history of Dumarao. He also said that it is a way of letting students learn and understand the contributions made by the elders, especially the values of helping one another without remuneration. He emphasized that this values should continue to live on and never be neglected, so that Dumaraonon values will not perish.

On the part of the local government unit, discussant C explained that Padagyaw should be celebrated yearly since it has become a tradition of the Municipality that Padagyaw is celebrated together with the Feast day of Nuestra Señora Delas Nieves, he said that the celebration is also considered to be the birthday of the Municipality.

Discussant B also added that aside from imparting knowledge about the history of Dumarao, the celebration could be a way to showcase to visitors what Padagyaw really is all about. Padagyaw could offer opportunities to the people of Dumarao in the stand point of the Academe, according to discussant E, students who joined in the Padagyaw has developed their dancing skills, which discussant G also agreed with.

Discussant A added that Padagyaw is not only an opportunity for students to learn but for teachers and every sectors participating the padagyaw such as the opportunity to develop management skills and human relations skills.

Cultural Contribution

Padagyaw highlights or underscores the unique qualities of the Dumaraonon. It was through Padagyaw that cultural and traditional dances flourished.

Padagyaw celebration usually focuses on how people in the rural areas lived. The tradition of helping and supporting one another was evident in Padagyaw. The name Padagyaw was formulated from the Dumaraonon's attitude and from the values of the elders during those times where people come together to help, relatives and friend, render services such as constructing a house, planting rice and others without expecting any payments in return, though it is also called Bayanihan.

The way they perform wedding ceremonies and the style of courtship is observed in the Padagyaw. Apparently costumes and props used during performance speaks of the culture itself and stringed instrument was considered instead of drums.

Upon the mentioned of the stringed instrument, discussant A was reminded of the years when violinists came to perform during the town fiesta. He also made mention of the Rondalla, which was confirmed also by discussant B statement about the elders who used to play the stringed instrument, she even supplemented on the floral and checkered kind of clothing worn by the elderly.

Discussant A, briefly verified the claims of discussant B, though he particularly pointed out of the use of patadyong a checkered kind of clothing being wore instead of floral. He also cited, the native dance of dumarao called "Sayaw" and the song "Kudangdang". This led to the discussion of other unpublished literature.

Moreover, procession was included in the padagyaw, one of the tradition in Dumarao. Procession is the re-enactment of centinela and the miracle of Nuestra Senora Delas Nieves which literally incorporated in the Padagyaw celebration.

Moreover, discussant B added that past students living abroad take pride in the celebration as they posted through social media the conduct of Padagyaw.

People are attracted to the parade, to the food and to the native products being exhibited by the Dumaraonon. They said, it gives them happiness as tourist and visitors would come and join in the celebration.

Economic Contribution of Padagyaw Festival to the Dumaraonon

All the discussants, believed that Padagyaw celebration is a great help in the lives of every Dumaraonon. According to discussant C, treasury report can be checked and verified on the records of the treasury office for collection status showed that there is an increase collection during the month of August compared to the month of July and September.

One significant contribution of the Padagyaw, according to discussant C, it boosts the tourism industry and intensify the economic activity of the Local Government Unit, likewise the event offers economic opportunity to the business sectors which greatly contribute to tax collection of the LGU, an added income activity of the municipality. He also said that it perpetuates the tradition and the culture of the Dumaraonon. Padagyaw is very significant for them it means income, which made them feel very happy.
